

The Mike Glenn Foundation and DeKalb County Schools presents

African American Read-In and Literary Exhibition

Join Us!

Thursday, Feb. 4, 2010
6:30 p.m.

An evening filled with historical literacy

Mark Hayes

Co-Host of Fox 5 Atlanta
Good Day Atlanta will serve as Master of Ceremony

Mike "Stinger" Glenn

Author, Speaker and collector of rare books and artifacts.

An Internationally-Renowned
Frederick Douglas presenter who will perform a live dramatization

A Harriet Tubman Enactment

Legendary Black Cowboys
Renowned character
Performer

Display of 50 historically significant books

TICKETS

Advance: $7.00

At Door: $10.00

To purchase tickets,
please call

Ms. Rosalind Young at
(678) 875-3619

The Splendid Torch: An African American Read-In Exhibit ends February 11, 2010

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2010 - 6:30 P.M.

location

Arabia Mountain High School

6610 Browns Mill Road

Lithonia, GA 30058

In celebration of Black History Month, twenty-five DeKalb County High School students will take part in The Splendid Torch: An African American Read-In that will honor the works of historic African American literary figures. Each student will present on the life of a chosen author and recite a passage. There will be live dramatizations and performances. Students and participants may contact Matt Osbourn at (678) 875-3633. Please support this effort and DeKalb students as we hope to shine a positive light with the splendid torch provided by great African Americans. Please purchase your tickets and keep the torch of splendid literacy blazing! For ticket information, contact Rosalind Young at (678) 875-3619 or email Rosalind\_Young@fc.dekalb.k12.ga.us.

The Mike Glenn Foundation
P.O. Box 390313
Snellville, GA 30039
www.mikeglenn.com

Embracing the rich legacy and heritage of African American literary excellence

- The Mike Glenn Foundation • DeKalb County Schools • The Black Caucus •
- The National Council of Teachers of English •